MR. S. RAMAKRISHNA AIYAR : Arrangements are being made.

MR. P. KUNJUKRISHNAN : May I know whether the price of rice was kept down in the beginning of the war because of the imported Government rice?

MR. S. RAMAKRISHNA AIYAR : Yes, Sir.

MR. S. CHATTANATHA KARAYALAR (Pathanapuram cum Shencotta) May I know whether any representation from the people of Shencotta was received saying that there the problem of the supply of paddy is different from the problem elsewhere in Travancore and they are seriously handicapped by the restrictions imposed?

MR. S. RAMAKRISHNA AIYAR : No, Sir.

PRESIDENT : Personal representations were received so far as I know and no other representations were made.

MR. S. CHATTANATHA KARAYALAR : May I inform the honourable member that representations were made in writing.

Price of paddy and rice.

438 *MR. G. VELU PILLAI (Karunagapalli cum Kartikapalli): Will the Government be pleased to state :

(a) whether the price of paddy and rice is rising day by day;

(b) whether they are taking any steps to prevent this abnormal rise; and

(c) if so, what those steps are?

MR. S. RAMAKRISHNA AIYAR : (a) There has been a gradual increase in price in consonance with the market price at Cochin and British India.

(b) Yes.

(c) Attention is invited to the Government Press Notes dated 1st May on the subject. Necessary instructions have been issued to the Police Officers and the situation is being closely watched.

Travancore University Examinations.

439 * MR. MURUKKUMPUZHA V. KUNJUKRISHNAN (Neyyattinkara cum Trivandrum) : Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a list showing the number of students presented and the percentage of passes (with class or distinction if any) for the Public Examinations held by the Travancore University in 1116 from the different colleges affiliated to the University?

DR. K. L. MOUDGILL : The *list asked for is laid on the table.

MR. MURUKKUMPUZHA V. KUNJUKRISHNAN : Sir, from the list given I find that the results in the Government Colleges are very poor when compared with the results in the private colleges. For example, the percentage of passes in the Intermediate Examination in the College of Arts and in the College of Science is 42·9 and 43·3 respectively, while in the Union Christian College, Alwaye, C. M. S. College, Kottayam, and the Scott Christian College, Nagercoil, the percentages are said to be 55·5, 42·3 and 47·5 per cent respectively. Similarly for the B. A. Examination the College of Arts has only a 50 per cent pass while the
